Dark tunnel, elusive light

12/ Despite the 2021 ceasefire lasting over three years, India and Pakistan are yet to resume the diplomatic ties that were broken after Jammu and Kashmir's status was changed in 2019. For any substantive change in the bilateral relationship, Pakistan will perhaps have to make the first move this time.

HIMALAYAN PLANS

Gelephu, a town strategically situated on the Assam border, has long been a passage between Bhutan and India. The Himalayan kingdom is now planning to build a city here, which will be an economic gateway for the world to India and southeast Asia. The Gelephu Mindfulness City will be a special administrative region based on 'two systems, one country' policy.
